Time: Registration - 8:00am; Workshop - 8:30am-3:45pm

(SCECHs, Webinar, light breakfast and lunch included) - 6 SCECHs, Pending MDE approval

Primary Audience: Teachers and Teacher Leaders, Principals, Assistant Principals, Central Office Administrators, Coaches and Staff Developers responsible for instructional practices.

Purpose

This interactive session, based on Myron Dueck's own classroom experience will highlight effective grading and assessment practices that can increase the level of accountability and student ownership of their own learning. Dueck will also discuss the positive effects that grading changes can have on student-teacher relationships.

Outcomes

Specific learning outcomes include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Understand the impact of alternative assessment routines on relationships and student achievement
- Be able to distinguish between sound and dangerous grading practice
- Be able to identify student-friendly learning targets
- Develop a personal plan of action related to grading practices
- Obtain tools and processes that can support effective assessment practices

Follow Up Webinar: October 14, 2015

Impact, Issues and Practices: A Follow-Up Conversation on Grading and Assessment

Three objectives for the webinar:

- ~ Provide opportunity to share what has been implemented related to grading practices
- ~ Respond to participant questions regarding implementation
- ~ Suggested approaches to dealing with stakeholders issues related to grading
